Well Being – Rejuvenation for your mind, body and soul

Laluna is not only the laid back, chic island hideaway for the latest jet set, but it is now “omming” its way into the Spiritual Age with its latest ‘Well Being’ package which offers guests an opportunity to open their minds to the ideas of Yoga, tai Chi and meditation.

Master Michael is the resident Yogi, who is here to teach you Reiki, Chi kung breathing and Eastern philosophies. Your inner batteries will be recharged to allow you to face the reality of your daily schedule without so much stress.

Laluna offers its guests a complimentary yoga session every Monday morning at 7:30 am. This is a good time to join the serene setting that this beach front property provides. The sound of the waves lapping on the sandy white secluded beach, is enough to lull you into a deep meditation that will certainly calm your emotions down to an island speed.

Master Michael also provides guests with individual sessions on the private veranda of each cottage. Each cottage has a king sized four poster Balinese bed, outdoor styled bathroom, with plunge pool and is set among lush landscapes, that cascade with tropical flowers.

We believe this will certainly have you leaving Grenada refreshed, peaceful and inspired to return to your own reality.
